PROVOST’S FUND FOR FACULTY TRAVEL – Professional Schools

The Provost’s Fund for Faculty Travel provides supplementary travel support for faculty participating in an academic conference, a diversity and inclusion event, or other select professional event by presenting or discussing a paper/film/project or chairing a session. The department chair or dean may recommend use of these funds for non-conference research related travel. Awards from the Provost Fund for Faculty Travel are available to all full time faculty. These funds are intended to be a matching grant for funds supplied by your school (up to $500). Approval by the department chair or dean is required. Please see Provost’s website for additional information.

To ensure funding is available, please submit this completed form to the Provost Office by March 1. Faculty will be notified by March 15th if funding is not available. Submissions received after March 1 will be subject to funding availability.
